Why choose

Bryte?

Our team of hospitality specialists works with customers to understand their business, and to design the best insurance solution for them. Our products are created to suit the tourism sector, those providing accommodation and the lifestyle, leisure and entertainment industry.

We love the passion that our customers have for their business, and appreciate what a highly competitive industry they're in. They need a partner to be there when the unexpected occurs, because the business needs to keep going, no matter what.

BnB Sure, founded in 1999 was, after a successful partnership over many years, acquired in 2013 by Bryte Insurance Company – the premier, proactive commercial risk specialist in Southern Africa. Having retained and subsequently enhanced the BnB Sure product offering, Bryte continues to work with customers and brokers to protect their businesses and improve their risk profile.

Owners or managers of busy establishments such as bed and breakfasts, guest houses, lodges, hotel chains, boutique hotels, hotels and resorts, know that insurance requirements are sometimes the last thing on their mind. That's why we have worked so hard to identify hospitality-specific challenges, so that we are there if things go wrong.
